

Principal Class Organisations

VASSP and VPA are Principal Class professional organisations that are independent but inter-related, as shown in this diagram. They support and represent members and advocate for and on behalf of government schools. The industrial organisations are totally separate organisations.